Randi Terry reported that flyers were handed out at the Township's dump day, announcing free road number signs to the residents of Hudson Township. Randi asked if the Township would be willing to add funds to purchase more signs if necessary. The signs are only being given to Residents who request them. A notice will be sent with the latest tax bill and posted on the Township website. The board is willing to help purchase the signs, if needed.

A representee of The Huffman Lake Association reported on plans to stock the lake with small mouth bass. Stocking 1500 year one and 500 the next 4 years. Requesting funding from the Township. Decision by the board is to revisit issue again in a year or two, giving time to see results.

A No Parking/Boat Launch sign needs to be installed at Huffman Lake. Randi Terry will get the sign and the Township will reimburse the cost. New stone needs to be installed at the Boat Launch, the Township will pay for the stone and a resident has offered to spread it at no charge.
